Love the illustrations. High quality paper and great full color printing. Led to many adventures in the bedroom for us!

This book is a great thing for couples who want to explore their sexuality and don't know what or how. It would be a perfect thing to use for fantasy bookmarking, or to start a conversation about fantasy. Tasteful (and hot) illustrations and plain language easy to follow instructions.

This book is very informative and has some real imaginative ideas to try. We have been trying to spice things up in the bedroom and this book helped us have some NEW fun!

I got this as something for the wife and I to read over together. While most of it was nothing new, it did have some suggestions we had never tried. If you're looking for that next crazy thing, and you turned your basement into a sex dungeon, you're going to be really disappointed. However if your current sex life is a little more vanilla or you want something to read with your SO to bring something more to the table, go ahead and give it a try.

Excellent book! Excellent price! Would recommend to anyone looking to spice it up a bit ! Easy read and easy diagrams to follow and learn!

Boring and not informative. The reviews on this book were awesome so I was hoping for a really good book. I agree with the one and two star reviews on this one. Pictures and information are good for a basic understanding but this is not a book that enriches one's experience the way the good reviews seem to indicate it did.

Doesn't offer any new ideas or positions that you simple couldn't google or read in Cosmo. Don't be mislead with the quoted 200 things, they include cuddling and kissing to be activities.

This had little information, and lacked depth. More like sex for dummies, which sucks because I love Emily's podcast.
