The Collected Plays Of Mart Crowley

Synopsis

Available for the first time, the complete plays of Boys in the Band author Mart Crowley, timed to coincide with the first New York production of Boys in more than a dozen years, along with the New York premiere of its sequel, Men from the Boys. These six plays "all professionally produced and two never before published" interrelate and revive the protagonist of the explosive gay drama Boys in the Band in his relationships with his family and friends, both gay and straight. Mart Crowley is an acclaimed playwright, television producer, and children's book author who lives in New York.

Customer Reviews

I had a great time, being able to have all of the plays in one book. They are find works, and some are really hard to find. thanks.

Brilliant. Every single page. Absolutely brilliant.
